Your invitation to join us

The Flute Society of South Australia Inc. was founded in July, 1972 at the instigation of the late Prof. David Cubbin. Its members represent a wide cross-section of the community – teachers, students, amateur flautists, professional musicians and people from all walks of life, all sharing the same interest – playing, talking about and listening to the flute.

Members enjoy:

- opportunities for playing and performing, including Flute Fun Days, Masterclasses, Workshops, Recitals and Concerts.
- performances and lectures by visiting and local artists.
- free or reduced admission to Flute Society concerts and events.
- receiving each year four issues of South Australian Flute News.
- discounts at local music shops (these shops are listed on the website).
- access to the Resource Library which contains magazines, books, music and recordings.
- participating in the Flute Sections in the annual City of Adelaide Eisteddfod.
- the Carolyn White Memorial Scholarship for flautists aged 15 years and under, which is held each year.
- the David Cubbin Memorial Prize for flautists aged 16 to 30 years, which is held every two to three years.
- receiving a list of Flute Teachers in South Australia twice each year.
- security; the Flute Society keeps a list of makes and serial numbers of members' flutes in case of loss or theft.
- the Flute Society's website at <http://flutesocietyofsa.org>
